THE LODGE AT SEA ISLAND
PROVIDES INTIMATE, AWARD-WINNING SETTING

SEA ISLAND, GA – Debuting in 2001 as an English-style manor and clubhouse surrounded by lush fairways and ocean beaches, The Lodge is the heart of Sea Island’s legendary golf mecca, and was named one of the top ten resorts in the Continental U.S., as recognized in the Travel + Leisure World’s Best Awards three years in a row. The Lodge was also named the #1 Hotel in the U.S. by U.S. News & World Report in 2014 and 2016, and #5 in 2017, and has received the Forbes Five-Star award since its opening in 2001.

The boutique hotel is the centerpiece of two of Sea Island’s championship courses. Situated between the Plantation and Seaside courses along the beaches of St. Simons Sound and the Atlantic, The Lodge manifests the charm, character and time-honored traditions that have made Sea Island an American icon. The courses are the site of the PGA TOUR’s RSM Classic, a FedEx Cup event. The ethereal serenity of The Lodge, foreshadowed by the majestic canopied Avenue of Oaks, provides guests with the grace, quality and members’ lifestyle that few, if any, private clubs can offer, all in a resort setting.

Personal butlers welcome guests to the richly wooded, antique-filled lobby and 57 spacious guest rooms, most featuring ocean and/or golf fairway views. Designed by architect Peter Capone, Capone and Associates, with interiors by Jill Cole, Cole Martinez Curtis and Associates, The Lodge guest rooms are elegantly appointed with antiques, oriental rugs and overstuffed chairs, exposed beam ceilings, hardwood floors and deep soaking baths.

Lodge guests are treated to impeccable dining experiences at Colt & Alison and the Oak Room. The Lodge Wine Cellar houses an impressive backbone of Old World and New World vintages with 4,500 bottles and 750 labels as well as a small, private dining experience. From The Lodge terrace and scenic veranda, diners and guests enjoy the traditional Scottish sunset serenade performed by a bagpiper marking the end of each day along the oceanfront 10th fairway of Plantation.

The first floor of The Lodge, adjacent to the Sea Island Golf Performance Center, includes a clubhouse, must-see 10,000-square-foot men’s locker room and golf pro shop featuring high-performance golf equipment as well as ladies' and men's designer clothing collections by Peter Millar, Polo Ralph Lauren, Burberry, Bobby Jones, and Lily Pulitzer.

Located on the oceanfront between the Seaside and Plantation courses, the Golf Performance Center is in large part the thriving legacy of Davis Love, Jr., the illustrious long-time golf instructor at Sea Island whose son, Davis Love III, resides as a Sea Island PGA Tour professional. Arguably the finest performance center in the country, the Sea Island Golf Performance Center teaches at every level, from juniors just picking up a club to tour professionals. Its staff includes some of the finest instructors in the country. Jack Lumpkin, Gale Peterson, and Craig Allan lead a staff of professionals offering customized, multi-disciplined programs for each golfer, including state-of-the-art club fitting, swing and short game analysis, performance psychology and golf fitness.

Enhancements recently debuting at The Lodge include six new cottages with 14 sleeping rooms, an oceanfront pool, and pool house, and an 18-hole putting course, called Driftwood. Early 2019 brought an all-new, 17,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art Golf Performance Center.

In addition to world-class golf and golf instruction, Lodge guests have full access to all Sea Island activities and amenities, including nine dining restaurants, tennis on eight Har-Tru® clay composition courts, the 65,000-square-foot Forbes Five-Star Sea Island Spa, Fitness Center, squash, sailing, deep sea fishing, salt marsh kayaking, nature excursions, horseback riding on the beach, and trap and skeet shooting. Guests also have access to the Sea Island Beach Club set upon five miles of private ocean beach.
