

July 14, 2015

10 Destination Wedding Venues Not to Be Missed in the U.S.

From a beachfront resort in California to a dude ranch tucked within the rolling hills of Montana, these locations across America have caught the eye of Jess Levin, founder and CEO of Carats & Cake, and the hearts of brides and grooms who are seeking them out for their big-day backdrops.

Image by Liz Banfield

Sea Island; Sea Island, Georgia

More than 80 years of genuine hospitality and family values have shaped the culture that surrounds this Southern coastal property. Award-winning golf courses, beach access, and an array of room accommodations form the foundation of this famed private escape.